

AAUW ALA Notable Book Club Discussions for September 2019- August 2020

10:00am-12:00pm, First Thursday of the Month, Lewes Public Library
Laura Troxell Itroxell22@yahoo.com

September 5, 2019-Share a Book-members share a book they have read with the group

October 3, 2019-Educated- a Memoir by Tara Westover

A girl raised by Mormon survivalists in rural Idaho must choose between higher education and family ties.

November 7, 2019-There There by Tommy Orange

A gritty depiction of the lives of urban Native Americans that converge at a Powwow in Oakland, California.

December 2019 No Meeting

January 2, 2020-The Overstory by Richard Powers-Pulitzer

A profound meditation on the connection between humankind and trees and the often invisible impact each has on the other

February 6, 2020-Florida by Lauren Groff-Short Stories about the state where the hot sun shines but a wild darkness lurks (Boston Globe)

March 5, 2020-Devotions by Mary Oliver, Pulitzer-Poetry, An American Sunrise/Poems by Joy Harjo-Poet Laureate of United States.

April 2, 2020-Warlight by Michael Ondaatje

A man seeks to understand why he and his sister were left in the care of a mysterious figure they call the Moth in post World War II England.

May 7, 2020-The Volunteer by Salvatore Scibona

A saga of loss and salvation that spans across four generations of fathers and sons.

June 4, 2020-The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald, Classics

A 1925 novel that follows a cast of characters living in fictional towns on Long Island in the summer of 1922.

July 2, 2020-An American Marriage by Tayari Jones

A young couple struggles to stay connected when the husband is sent to prison for a crime he didn't commit in this complete domestic drama.

August 6, 2020-Milkman by Anna Burns-Man Booker

A richly complex portrayal of a besieged community and its traumatized citizens. (Slate)